

Duncan Public Schools in Duncan, OK provides many computer labs for Students to take required on-line testing. Each year we struggle with this online process due to low band-width that bottlenecks and will time out the student testing, making their test invalid. If End of Instruction testing is online and mandated from the State Dept of Education, then we need reliable and AFFORDABLE high-speed networking to be properly funded to meet this demand.